JUNE TO MAKE A TRIUMPHAL EXIT

The Rose remarked, "How sweet to be!"
I'm sure all persons will agree That June was simply made for me."
And blushed.

The Bride with rapture in her tone Cried out that she had always known That June was made for her alone.
And blushed.

The Graduate remarked, "Tis so; There's naught on earth I do not know. This month for me was made to grow."
Nor blushed.

The Candidate remarked, "I'm grand; I'm the saviour of the land; This month was made for my command."
Nor blushed.

June has kept up her record and weddings in Pensacola during this good old month in which Cupid always reigns supreme will make its exit with as great triumphs as it made its entrance. One can almost see the love gods banqueting on the last night of this month of lovers, and a picture in one of the popular magazines of a long table set with hearts, surrounded by many little Capids, each with an uplifted glass drinking a toast to the month of all months is brought vividly to mind.

Two weddings will occur on Wednesday, the twenty-fourth of June, the first that of Mr. Oscar Kuester and Miss Mary Eulalie Durant, which will be solemnized at five-thirty o'clock at St. Michael's church.

Miss Honour Barnette, the pretty young daughter of Mr. Ida M. Barnette, will be wedded to Mr. Joseph Louis Finney at eight o'clock at the St. Presbyterian church.

The following day Miss Amy Lydia Briggs and Mr. William Rufus Jones will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. A. Briggs, 302 East Gadsden street.

BUT IT WASN'T FICTION.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

"BLACK & WHITE" contains a filler of Cuban-grown leaf, wrapped in excellent quality of Sumatra wrapper, and it's free, burning fragrance makes its popularity greater than any cigar for 5c. that we sell.

dore, chatting with excitement. They surrounded the unfortunate male clerks who were to distribute the headgear, and finally became wrought to such a pitch that they stormed the counters, one of which they overturned. The army overpowered the clerks, and in two minutes had bones had been swept away and a dozen "Merry Widows" hats lay forlornly on the floor, totally wrecked.

The clashing and pushing became so great that the police were called from the street to suppress the military riot. They got the women into line, and announcement was made that distribution of the hats would be deferred until Thursday next because of the fracas.

BALL FOR SPONSORS AT BIRMINGHAM.
The sponsors and maids of the Confederate reunion were again the featured guests at a complimentary ball given in their honor at the Country Club on Wednesday night. No detail or expense had been spared to gain beautiful results in decorative effects. Flags of the Confederacy, the pennants of the various regiments, and the stars and stripes waving in the breezes were but mute but bracing reminders of the patriotism marking the occasion. Every pillar and post was given expression in these same colors.

'Twas a glorious scene into which the orchestra put the finishing verve with national airs played in waltz and two-step time. Miss Eva Omer, sponsor-in-chief for the Sons of Veterans, led the grand march and the dance with General John Apperson, of Memphis. In their train came the sponsors and maids, Sons of Veterans, generals, captains and soldiers of the South, many in full dress uniform, while the girls in pretty white evening dresses, carried the red and white insignia. Chivalrous men and beautiful women, gallantry and merit made memorable the hospitality so cordially extended by the club whose membership was largely represented. Ice, fruit and punch were served, and the real good time kept up until the advent of morn, and with the last strains of the dance music came the end of one of the loveliest entertainments.

LINEN SHOWER FOR MISS RUSSELL.
Misses Olga and Beatrice White were the hostesses at a linen shower given in honor of Miss Dora Russell, whose marriage to Mr. Carl Bert McAllister will take place on the eighth instant.

The home was most attractively decorated with native smilax and roses, and a number of Miss Russell's friends had gathered to give her their good wishes and to show, in a very pretty and substantial way, their love and interest in the approaching occasion.

From the ceiling a silver bell had been suspended and on the entrance of the bride-elect, the other guests all being assembled, the clapper was given a sudden energetic pull, and out tumbled the most bewildering array of prettily embroidered lingerie and dainty linen centre pieces.

Refreshments were served and the afternoon was most delightfully spent by the bevy of happy girls, several of whom are themselves to become brides at no distant date.

A number of friends also gathered at the home of the Misses White during the evening to offer congratulations.

ATTACK MADE ON W. C. JONES

Mrs. Mary Condon Charged With Assaulting Him With a Pistol.

The business portion of Palafox street was the scene of some little excitement yesterday morning when an altercation occurred between W. C. Jones, city editor of the Evening News, and Mrs. Mary Condon, whose name figured in the testimony of the recent contempt case trial in the federal court here. As a result, Mrs. Condon is charged on the city docket with assault with a pistol, and with carrying concealed weapons. She is out on $250 bond. Officer Benjamin made the arrest.

The affair occurred just inside the entrance to the Gem saloon on Palafox street. Mr. Jones was standing at the bar engaged in conversation with a friend at the time. Mrs. Jones' statement, or the gist of it, is to the effect that Mrs. Condon entered the saloon and inquired if his name was Chipley Jones. Upon his reply that it was, she says, she assaulted him with a revolver which she had concealed in a piece of newspaper, placing it to his stomach. During his struggle with Mrs. Condon Mr. Jones received an abrasion on his face. He succeeded in securing the revolver, which he later turned over to the police department.

Mrs. Condon says that her grievance against Mr. Jones is the result of certain personal remarks which she asserts that he had made concerning her and that it was this, more than his report of the testimony in the contempt case, that she objected to.

The case will come up for trial before the recorder this morning.

Death Was on His Heels.
Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was well again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The bill at the Bijou Theatre this week is made up of some of the best vaudeville acts obtainable. As a whole, the performance is worthy of a higher priced house.

The Manolo family, four in all, is excellent in its famous acrobatic feature, in which extraordinary physical strength is displayed.

Fox and Fox introduce a very comical sketch, interspersed with the latest jokes, songs, dances, etc.

Mr. Chas. LaSalle was compelled to respond to an encore last night to the song of "Prairie Mary," with beautiful illustrated slides.

PREPARINS FOR DENVER TRIP

West Florida Through Pullman Will Leave Night of July 1.

Two weeks from tomorrow, or on the night of Wednesday, July 1, the West Florida delegation will leave for Denver in a special through Pullman and will make but one stop between Pensacola and Denver. The stop will be at Lincoln, Neb., where the party will celebrate the Fourth of July with Mr. Bryan and then proceed on to the convention city.

The east and south Florida delegations will join the West Florida people in a car of their own at Montgomery and the Florida trip will pick up the Alabama delegations on their way up and all will go together.

The going route decided upon is as follows: L. & N. to St. Louis; Burlington from St. Louis to Denver via Lincoln. The returning route will be from Pensacola via the Gulf and most of them will probably return by the Union Pacific from Denver to Kansas City and by the Chicago & Alton from Kansas City to St. Louis, coming from the latter place via the L. & N. The fare for the round trip from Pensacola will be $13.35, tickets good until Oct. 31. The Pullman fare will be about $10 each way.

The party will not be confined to the convention dates alone, but everyone who is interested in seeing Mr. Bryan nominated or elected will be invited to join the party. Mr. Division, secretary, Agent J. W. Linton is already making sleeping car reservation for the party and those who desire to go should write or see him at once.
